

Handy Java Shortcuts for Using Eclipse 3.x

Shortcut	Description
Ctrl+B	Build open projects.
Ctrl+F11	Run the last application that was successfully launched.
Ctrl+Shift+O	Organize <code>import</code> 's. Adds needed imports, removes unneeded.
Ctrl+Shift+M	Adds the necessary import for the selected class/interface.
Ctrl+Shift+F	Format the selected lines, or format the entire file if no text is currently selected. Use with caution as this can mangle already nicely formatted code!
Ctrl+I	Correct the indentation of the current line, or the indentation for the lines in a selected block.
Ctrl+Space	Suggest completions (get awesome code help!) a.k.a. Content Assist .
Ctrl+Shift+Space	Show expected method parameter types and names.
Ctrl+Z	Undo.
Ctrl+Y	Redo
Ctrl+I	Quick-fix suggestions.
Ctrl+D	Delete the current line.
Ctrl+Backspace	Delete backwards, chunks at a time.
Ctrl+Alt+Up (Down)	Duplicate the current line or the currently selected block and put the copy above (below) the original.
Alt+Up (Down)	Move the current line up (down) or move the currently selected block up (down).
Ctrl+Shift+C	Toggle comment for current line, or for selected lines.
Ctrl+Down (Up)	Scroll one line down (up)—keeping the cursor on the current line.
Ctrl+Shift+Enter	Insert a line above the current line.
Shift+Enter	Insert a line below the current line.
F3	Jump to the declaration for the method under the cursor.
Ctrl+Alt+H	Search for all calls to the method under the cursor.
Ctrl+T	Quick class hierarchy for the type currently under the cursor.
Ctrl+O	Quick outline for the currently open class.
Alt+Left	Go back to the previous jump-from position.
Alt+Right	Go forward to the next jump-to position (if any).
F5	Refresh.

Handy Java Shortcuts for Using Eclipse 3.x

Shortcut	Description
Ctrl+Shift+S	Save all.
Ctrl+Shift+Down (Up)	Jump to the next (previous) method.
Ctrl+. (,)	Next (Previous).
Ctrl+NumPad*	Unfold all.
Ctrl+NumPad/	Toggle folding. Once to turn off folding. A second time to refold all.
Ctrl+NumPad-	Fold the current
Alt+Shift+N	Create a new project, class, interface, etc.
Alt+Shift+R	Rename a variable, method, class, etc.
Ctrl+Shift+F4	Close all editors.
Ctrl/L	Jump to specified line number.
F12	Activate current editor.
Ctrl/F6	Select editor from the list of currently open editor tabs. To toggle between two, just press Ctrl/F6 and release. To choose from the pop-up list, press Ctrl/F6 and then continue to hold Ctrl while using the Up and Down to run through the selections, finally press Enter to jump to that Editor (press ESC to abort).
Ctrl/F7	Select from the list of currently open Views. To toggle between two, just press Ctrl/F7 and release. To choose from the pop-up list, press Ctrl/F7 and then continue to hold Ctrl while using the Up and Down to run through the selections, finally press Enter to jump to that View (press ESC to abort).
Custom Settings – Non-Standard for Eclipse
Ctrl+Alt+A	Activate the Ant View.
Ctrl+Alt+C	Activate the Console View.
Ctrl+Alt+P	Activate the Problems View.
Ctrl+Alt+J	Activate the Java Package Explorer View.